Regulation (EU) 2016/679: Articles 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22 - Rights of the Data Subject

1. The data subject has the right to obtain confirmation as to whether or not personal data concerning them exists, regardless of their being already recorded, and their communication in an intelligible form, and the possibility to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority.
2. The data subject has the right to obtain indication:
 - a. of the origin of the personal data;
 - b. of the purposes and methods of the processing;
 - c. of the logic applied to the processing if carried out with the help of electronic means;
 - d. of the identification details of the data controller, data processors, and the representative designated pursuant to Article 5, paragraph 2;
 - e. of the entities or categories of entities to whom or which the personal data may be communicated and who or which may become aware of the data in their capacity as designated representatives in the territory of the State, data processors, or persons in charge of the processing.
3. The data subject has the right to obtain:
 - a. the updating, rectification, or, when interested, integration of the data;
 - b. the deletion, transformation into anonymous form, or blocking of data processed unlawfully, including data whose retention is unnecessary for the purposes for which they were collected or subsequently processed;
 - c. certification that the operations as per letters a) and b) have been notified, also as regards their content, to the entities to whom or which the data were communicated or disseminated, unless this requirement proves impossible or involves a manifestly disproportionate effort compared with the right to be protected;
 - d. data portability.
4. The data subject has the right to object, in whole or in part:
 - a. for legitimate reasons to the processing of personal data concerning them, even though they are relevant to the purpose of the collection;
 - b. to the processing of personal data concerning them for the purpose of sending advertising materials or direct selling or for carrying out market research or commercial communication.
